

Sinclair Broadcasting continually abuses their duty to serve the public interest. Their decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary that contains many proven untruths days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. The fact that it is being shown as a news program is very dangerous to our democracy.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for their bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. They are using their money and power to spread their political, religious, or social agenda.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.
Thank you.
